

What We Do for You – Your South Australian Conveyancing Partner

At 1836 Conveyancing, we take the stress out of property transactions by handling all the legal details, so you can focus on what matters most—whether that's moving into your new home, growing your investment portfolio, or smoothly completing a sale or purchase.

As experienced and fully registered conveyancers in South Australia, we assist with:

Residential and Commercial Settlements

Form 1 Preparation & Disclosure Compliance

Contract & Form Review Before You Sign

Private Sale & Family Transfer Advice

Land Divisions

Matrimonial & Deceased Estate Transfers

We're here to protect your legal and financial interests throughout the entire process—from the moment you sign the contract to the final settlement. It's our goal that you feel confident and informed at every step.

Whether you're a first-time buyer, a seasoned investor, or a developer, we offer prompt communication, transparent pricing, and reliable service tailored to your needs.
